21 08 2022 13:34

Me

21 08 2022 13:34

Me

Just a moment, please.

21 08 2022 13:35

Me

I am growing increasingly concerned about my fiancé's safety.

21 08 2022 13:35

Me

We made plans to marry two years ago. She is currently in a relationship with another man, who has cut off all communication with her.

21 08 2022 13:36

Me

He fits the classic narcissist profile. Also a member of an organization called the Congressional Sheriffs, identified by the Southern Poverty Law Center as white supremacists.

21 08 2022 13:37

Me

I have known her family for over 35 years.

Me

The Lake Orion Police will do nothing. They believe the lies her " husband " ( she is not legally married ) tell, as do her surviving family members.

21 08 2022 13:39

National Domestic Abuse Hotline Sales

I'm sorry you feel your fiancé may be in danger. That's a terrible thing to worry about. She deserves to be safe. What's happened that's leaving you feeling this way and has she reached out to you directly about what she is going through?

21 08 2022 13:40

National Domestic Abuse Hotline Sales

If so, what has she shared with you about her relationship with this person?

21 08 2022 13:40

Me

She described to me horrific acts he committed. I have chronicled all of this publicly on a literary page on DeviantArt. About 250 submissions thus far, earning over 254,000 views in six weeks.

21 08 2022 13:41

National Domestic Abuse Hotline Sales

Can you briefly tell me what some of those acts have been?

21 08 2022 13:42

National Domestic Abuse Hotline Sales

And how does she feel about you publicly sharing what she has been experiencing?

21 08 2022 13:44

Me

I got through on her number, which had been kept on Do Not Disturb for two years, on June 1st. She answered and said, " M-----, I can't talk. I cannot talk. " Then the phone went dead. Back on Do Not Disturb. The next day it was disconnected. She had that number for decades.

21 08 2022 13:44

Me

All communication has been cut off.

21 08 2022 13:44

Me

I have been publicly telling our story with the rationale that the more people know, the safer she is.

21 08 2022 13:45

Me

For instance, she told me he tore apart her five tiny dogs with his hands and forced her to bake them on a cookie sheet, eating them afterwards. She said he got sick, as they had just had their parvo shots.

21 08 2022 13:47

Me

*He identifies himself as a conservative christian
Republican. Rush Limbaugh is his hero. Believes in Q Anon.*

21 08 2022 13:48

National Domestic Abuse Hotline Sales

I can see why you would feel concerned, however, if she hasn't reached out to you in two years and the only time she did respond was to let you know she can't talk, then maybe she has decided that having contact with you isn't what's safest for her, at least not right now. The best thing you can do at this time, would be to respect her and her boundaries.

21 08 2022 13:49

Me

In the name of religion, he has exerted dominance and control over this beautiful, otherwise extremely intelligent woman. She told me she's never had an orgasm with another person.

21 08 2022 13:49

Me

I can't talk, with fear and stress in her voice, is not the same thing as I don't want to talk. That would be what an intelligent person would say.

21 08 2022 13:50

Me

To suggest otherwise is to be insulting.

21 08 2022 13:50

Me

You sound like him.

21 08 2022 13:51

National Domestic Abuse Hotline Sales

If you know her family or any of her friends, you can consider reaching out to them and asking them if they can check up on her, but, for now, I do encourage you to take care of yourself and to consider doing things that can help you feel better.

21 08 2022 13:51

Me

I can see no help will be had here. I will continue to publicly tell everything I know.

21 08 2022 13:52

National Domestic Abuse Hotline Sales

I'm sorry, I definitely do not want to sound like her partner, however, because you really don't know what she may be going through, it's best to hold off until you are able to talk with her directly.

21 08 2022 13:52

Me

If a 54 year old woman isn't able to use a phone, that is abduction. I will do whatever I can to ensure her safety.

21 08 2022 13:53

National Domestic Abuse Hotline Sales

That's also something that's really concerning, especially if you do not have permission to share what she is telling you. She has reached out to you for support and help. Going public with her personal situation must feel so hurtful and painful for her. I don't know her and she may be okay with this, but, this behavior is not okay. Even if you are feeling concerned for her safety.

21 08 2022 13:56

Me

I have known her for over 35 years now. Him since the beginning 20 years ago. Thank you for your time and advocacy. I understand the constraints you are under, how you must remain emotionally void to do your job.

*Legally there is nothing anyone can do until she's murdered unless she escapes her isolated house herself.
Thank you for your time.*

21 08 2022 13:56

Me

*This behavior is what a concerned person would do.
You still are defending his position, not hers.*

21 08 2022 13:57
